

Standing Orders

Once the answer is filed, the Court sends out a notice of status conference. All dates are set by the scheduling order at that status conference. In most RICO cases, the Court requires the completion of a RICO case statement.